

There are other methods the banking groups can use to contact old customers. We are not impeding their ability to market to us. We are requesting our right not to be harassed on the phone. Send me mail, use web site banners, use advertising billboards, newspapers, magazines...just don't use MY phone.